MeatSmith Class Out-of-Towners Info

Airport

If flying into Oklahoma, Tulsa International airport is the closest. Please plan on renting a car, as there are no convenient bus routes. You can do so at Tulsa International.

Accommodations

There are many options in and around Tulsa, Oklahoma. We always recommend Airbnb as they are generally more affordable. There are a few listings close by us, but Tulsa is just 30 minutes away.

Camping

We have spots for folks to camp on our homestead and an RV hook-up. The butcher shop has a bathroom with a shower and filter water. Please email us at Community@farmsteadmeatSmith.com before planning to camp so we can confirm we have space. Campers can arrive anytime after 3 pm the day before class starts. We kindly request you text Brandon with when you plan to arrive.

Transportation

We don't provide transportation. However, you can rent a car or email us at Community@farmsteadmeatSmith.com to connect you to the other students in your class to see if anyone wants to carpool.

Meals

We provide a lunch every day of the class, usually between 1-3 pm, the cost of which is included in your class fee. If you need snacks to sustain you, please bring them with you. You can find the meal details on the class page.

Places to Visit
